Council CEO to double his deputies

NEW chief executive officer of the Northern Beaches Council, Ray...

John Engel Didn't take long. The whole idea of merging the three councils was to cut costs. Won't be long before it starts to balls things up like Warringah and Manly councils did.

Bill Bird What for. What will that achieve. Overpaid wankers

Dave Murray So much for the 'scale and capacity' argument. Why couldn't the three councils have remained independant and shared a few resources to save a few $? Once the state government sweeteners run out we will be back where we started except Pittwater has lost is autonomy.

Julie Hegarty Dave Murray 100% correct!! All that we feared and worse!!

Jeffrey Quinn We need Pittwater Council back
